Newsletter 6.6.25

Whole school attendance this week = 94%

Well done to Reception and 5D who had 99% attendance this week. Well done!

(we have not included Friday in this week's percentages, due to lots of families celebrating Eid)

Welcome to the last half term of this academic year, the time is passing very quickly and we have lots more exciting things planned for the children before the summer holidays!

This was the last week for the previous clubs that started before the half term, we hope the children have enjoyed learning some new skills! The letters have been sent out if your child has been given a place in the next round of clubs and these will start next week. We are very excited to be able to offer lots of different clubs so we hope that all children were able to find something interesting that they would like to try out! Thank you to all of the staff who are giving up the time to prepare and run the clubs for the children, we really appreciate all of the effort put into them!

The children in Year 4 have been working very hard on learning their times tables this year and have all tried their best in the national Multiplication Check this week, we are very proud of how they have approached the check. Some children will sit their check next week due to some technical issues and we will let the children and parents know how they have done when we receive the results.

Next week will be the turn of the Year 1's and some Year 2 children to sit the Phonics Screening Check. They have been very well prepared in school but any practice that you can do with phonics and reading over the weekend will help them to do their best next week.

Eid Mubarak to all of our families who are celebrating this weekend! We hope you have a lovely time with your families and friends!

The photos taken looked lovely, here are a couple of examples of the class photos;

The real class photos will not have faces covered but some children do not wish to appear on the school newsletter so we have covered their faces to show example photos.

Clubs

This is the last week for the previous clubs, we hope the children have enjoyed learning some new skills! The letters have been sent out if your child has been given a place in the next round of clubs and these will start next week.

All children who were not in a club last half term have been given a space this half term and nearly everyone was offered a space in their first choice of club. Unfortunately some clubs were very popular so if you were unable to join a club this half term, we will try to run it again next year to allow everyone to join in.

Parent support workshops

As a parents, it can be a difficult and lonely position to support a child that is struggling with an issue or has additional needs. There are a range of online workshops available that are run throughout the year by psychologists and medical or educational professionals to support parents.

These virtual workshops are free for parents and carers and will explore the unique strengths of neurodivergent children and young people, offering practical advice on how to support their individual needs.

The next workshops coming up are;

Childhood Neurodivergence: Understanding and Supporting Eating Difficulties - Wednesday 25th June 2025: 1:00pm

Childhood Neurodivergence: Managing Big Feelings including Anxiety and Low Mood - Tuesday 15th July 2025: 1:00pm
